

Harriet Kretschmar was born in Munich, Germany, in 1959. She studied business administration in Munich. After earning a doctoral degree in economic geography she worked for 14 years as internal consultant and personnel officer in a large Bavarian Company. In 2001 she became a freelance consultant and joined Trigon Munich in summer 2002. Harriet has additional qualifications in organizational development, psychotherapy (Gestalt) and coaching. She is married with two daughters and lives in Munich. Her hobbies include family, travelling, skiing and reading.
Email: harriet.kretschmar[at]trigon.de

Fields of experience (topics, projects, customers)

My consulting work is based on long experience in all areas of human resources management und therefore I'm convinced, that fruitful development and growth are only possible with active commitment, will and consent of the participants.

A selection of past and current clients: Bosch, BMW, DaimlerChrysler, Demeter, ERGO AG, evangelisches München Programm, Internationaler Jugendverein, Kreisjugendring München-Stadt, Iveco, Jugendhaus München u.a.

Fields of consulting

- Creating change management processes with a focus on leadership and teamwork
- Personnel Marketing and Recruiting
- The Personnel Department between disciplinary- and service function
- Transferoriented Seminars for managers and master-craftsmen
- Management Coaching
- Counselling and mediation in conflict situations
- Office management