

Mag. Ida Stögerer, born in Vorau in 1970, career with several market-leading financial institutions (marketing, organization), member of management board; studied communication science and theatre science; management trainer and consultant since 2002, university lecturer. Further studies in coaching, group dynamics, systemic theory, organization development and existential analysis. Independent consultant for Trigon since 2005, partner of Trigon since 2007. Hobbies: Movies, sports, literature, travelling. Lives in Vienna.

e-mail: ida.stoegerer[at]trigon.at

Current Focus of Activities:

- Sustainable processes of change in SMEs
- Change projects (strategy, organisational and HR development)
- Facilitating workshops for management and work groups (on strategy, HR and organisational development, change processes)
- HR-development concepts, strategies and the positioning of HR functions
- HR-development: HR development for managers, personality-, and career development, communication, assessment centers
- Coaching and supervision: individual, group and team coaching for managers
- Management Development Programs (design, implementation) Training and development for managers on the subjects of personality development, leadership, conflict management, team development, HR-, and organisational development

Fields of experience (Topics, projects and customers)

Ida Stoegerer has considerable experience in consulting managers and teams in development processes and projects. Her approach: integrating business and systemic process consulting

Here is a selection of her customers from recent years: Raiffeisen Capital Management, Raiffeisenlandesbanken, Uniqa, strategie.team, Eybl International, Mona Gruppe Österreich, Südfisch Milch, Plattform Telemedizin, Bundesministerium für Justiz, Österreichische Nationalbank, Nextira One, s-Versicherung, BP Austria, Sport 2000

consultant e-mail: ida.stoegerer[at]trigon.at