

Dipl.-Oec. Marlin Voß, partner of Trigon Entwicklungsberatung. Business Consultant, executive in charge of organizational development and professional coach. Born 1978. Studied economics in Klagenfurt and Wuppertal. Abroad in New Zealand.

10 years of experience in process and project management of large companies (Microsoft, Volkswagen, E.ON, etc.). Has been a senior project manager of various change projects in charge of planning, management and control in the dimensions of content, time and resources. Additional qualifications in organizational development, project management and coaching. Since 2012, an independent consultant. Since 2015 Partner of Trigon Munich. Working languages German, English.

Married, mother of 2 children. Lives in Munich.
E-mail: marlin.voss [at] trigon.de

Areas of Expertise:

- Change projects: Advice on restructuring of Organizations, reorganization of functions and spin off or integration of Group companies.
- Process Management: Support for the improvement of existing and the development of new processes. Core and support processes.
- Leadership Development: Concept and supports the implementation of such programs. Management tools, potential analysis, 360° feedback as well as the development of recommendations for Action.
- Team development: Development and presentation of management and team building workshops. Focus on communication, development of shared values, Business rules and dealing with conflicts and errors.

My core competency:

Based on my experience and my expertise, I will accompany you in your situation empathic, individually and professionally from the project idea over the project design, making a diagnosis with sense for the future to the actual implementation. The view of your customers, meaningful changes and value-added results are therefore relevant and important to me.

Customers (Selection):

ADAC, Autostadt, Daimler, Deutsches Patent- und Marken Amt, Freie Gemeinschaftsbank Genossenschaft, GLS Bank, HSE24, IABG, Institut für Marktökologie, Medizinische Universität Innsbruck, Parkhotel Wolfsburg, Stiftung Menschen für Menschen, Waldorfkindergarten Ismaning.